

Enhanced (NYSE: ENHA) Selects Rezolve Ai (NASDAQ: RZLV) to Power AI-Native Live Enhanced Consumer Platform and Digital Fan Ecosystem

May 18, 2026 12:00 PM EDT

Multi-million dollar strategic partnership combines AI-powered consumer health roadmap, digital fan engagement technologies and global promotional collaboration

NEW YORK and LAS VEGAS, May 18, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Rezolve Ai (NASDAQ: RZLV), a global leader in AI-powered agentic commerce and digital engagement, today announced a multi-million dollar strategic partnership with Enhanced (NYSE: ENHA), the company behind Enhanced Games and the Live Enhanced consumer platform, to power AI-enabled fan engagement and consumer health technologies across Enhanced's rapidly expanding digital ecosystem.

The initial deployment will focus on a mobile-first web experience for The Enhanced Games, including ticket access, athlete and event information, race outcomes, highlights, media content and a conversational AI concierge designed to support real-time fan engagement during the inaugural Games in Las Vegas.

The partnership also establishes a roadmap for Rezolve Ai technologies to support the continued evolution of Enhanced's Live Enhanced consumer platform, including future tele-health functionality, AI Doctor capabilities and deep AI-driven personalization designed to improve scalability, efficiency and customer engagement.

The agreement combines Rezolve Ai's AI technologies, digital engagement infrastructure and strategic promotional rights within the Enhanced ecosystem, creating a broad commercial partnership designed to accelerate consumer adoption, audience growth and long-term platform expansion for both companies.

Rezolve Ai as the AI Engine Behind Enhanced's Consumer Platform

Rezolve Ai's AI-native infrastructure is designed to help high-growth consumer platforms scale intelligent engagement without the complexity of retrofitting AI into legacy systems. By selecting Rezolve Ai at the outset, Enhanced is building its digital consumer experience on an AI-enabled foundation designed to support fan engagement, future tele-health services, personalization and direct-to-consumer growth.

Powering Digital Fan Engagement and Strategic Visibility

Rezolve Ai will also power The Enhanced Games mobile-first web experience, providing fans with ticket access, athlete information, race outcomes, highlights, media content, FAQs and event coverage from the inaugural Enhanced Games in Las Vegas.

As part of the agreement, Rezolve Ai will receive strategic promotional rights across Enhanced Games digital, in-arena and broadcast environments, supporting the continued expansion of Rezolve Ai's global enterprise and consumer visibility.

"The global momentum surrounding the Games is accelerating our ability to strike strategic partnerships that power every aspect of our business," said Maximilian Martin, Chief Executive Officer of Enhanced.

"Rezolve Ai gives us both the technology infrastructure and the strategic collaboration needed to accelerate the development of our Live Enhanced platform, improve fan engagement and build a scalable long-term consumer ecosystem."

Daniel M. Wagner, CEO and Chairman of Rezolve Ai, added:

"Enhanced represents one of the most ambitious new platforms at the intersection of sports, performance science, healthcare and consumer engagement.

"What makes this partnership especially compelling for Rezolve Ai is that our technologies are being integrated into the platform from the outset, from AI-enabled fan engagement and digital experiences through to the long-term roadmap for Live Enhanced.

"This partnership further validates Rezolve Ai's ability to power intelligent, scalable consumer ecosystems while also expanding our visibility across one of the world's most talked-about emerging sports platforms."
